Art Club show ends Friday, April 22, at Art on Center in Fairhaven

ACUSHNET — An exhibit of works by the Ford Middle School Art Club for grades 5 and 6 opened Sunday, April 10, with a opening reception at Art on Center in Fairhaven. It runs through tomorrow, Friday, April 22.

The exhibit is entitled Shadows and Light. It features painting created under the guidance of FMS art director Kristine Daniels who oversees the after-school art program.

Photos provided by Ford Middle School/Special to Advocate Families and friends admire the artwork at the Ford Middle School Art Club show for grades 5 and 6. The special exhibit and opening reception were held at Art on Center in Fairhaven on Sunday, April 10. The exhibit, called Shadows of Light, ends Friday, April 22.
